ooh, ho

As I'm kissing you
mhmmh
As I'm kissing you
oh, yeah, yeah

Here we are, all alone
Knowing that something
That we both knew inside
But how do we show it Trembling hard is telling us its gonna happen
So close your eyes (ah...)
and baby let these feelings through

As I'm kissing you (as I'm kissing you)
My world seems brighter, boy
Tell me do you feel this fire too (do you feel it too)
I think I'm loosing my heart to you darling (loosing my heart)
Are you ready to catch me (oooh...)
I'm falling in love

catch me, catch me
As I'm kissing you
Catch me, catch me (oh, baby)

Boy the taste, of your lips pulls me in deeper (oh...)
nothing else would compare or ever be sweeter (yeah)
with every breath
you got me drowning in desire So hold me tight (ah...)
And baby never let me go

As I'm kissing you (as I'm kissing you)
My world seems brighter, boy
Tell me do you feel this fire too (do you feel it too)
I think I'm loosing my heart to you darling (loosing my heart)

Are you ready to catch me
I'm falling in love

Oh,
Catch me

I'll do anything to make you see How much this one kiss means to me
All the feelings inside have buried deep
But you are finally free
Free

oh-yea ouh

Here we are, all alone
Knowing that something
That we both knew inside (do ya)

As I'm kissing you (as I'm kissing you)
My world seems brighter, boy
Tell me do you feel this fire too (do you feel it too)
I think I'm loosing my heart to you darling (loosing my heart)
Are you ready to catch me

As I'm kissing you (as I'm kissing you)
My world seems brighter, boy
Tell me do you feel this fire too (do you feel it too)
I think I'm loosing my heart to you darling (loosing my heart)
Are you ready to catch me
I'm falling in love

As I'm kissing you
Do you feel it too (tell me do you feel this fire too) Loosing my heart (I think I'm loosing me heart to you darling)
Are you ready to catch me
I'm falling in love
