All of this time, guess, I must have been blind
Not to see you and me, we're picture perfect
Now baby, we've been friends for such a long, long time
We've been through laughs and we've been through cries

But lately have you seen the way my tongue gets tied Can't hardly speak when I look into your eyes It's because of the way I'm feelin', it's somethin' I never dreamed
And our love has a different meaning
It took so long to reveal but now I know that

All of this time, guess I must have been blind
Not to see you and me we're picture perfect

I'll be yours, be mine, we're picture perfect
Forever picture perfect

I showed some friends of mine, my favorite photograph
You know the one of you and me from way back
And when I told them all that you were not my guy
They couldn't see it, couldn't understand why

Everyone thinks it's so romantic, they say we're two of a kind
And the more that I think about it
The more that I realize what I've been missing

All of this time, guess I must have been blind
Not to see you and me we're picture perfect

My heart keeps tellin' me, make up your mind about what'cha mean
You've been holding back for too long, you know it makes good sense
Best of lovers are the best of friends
I guess we should have known all along

Everyone thinks it's so romantic, they say we're two of

a kind
And the more that I think about it
The more that I realize what I've been missing

All of this time, guess I must have been blind
Not to see you and me we're picture perfect
All of this time, guess I must have been blind
Not to see you and me we're picture perfect

I'll be yours, be mine we're picture perfect
