Before you came
I thought every man was the same
Thinking to myself
That it's a dog on shame
Then when we first met
I didn't quite know what to expect
But we've been together ever since
And I have no regrets
You mean so much to me
I'm so happy to be
Your woman
Love is so hard to find
Which is why I'm thankful that I'm
Your woman
You and me somehow connected spiritually
Connected mentally
Connected physically
And so I believe all the obstacles that we've Encountered along the way
Make us strong today
You mean so much to me

I'm so happy to be
Your woman
Love is so hard to find
Which is why I'm thankful that I'm
Your woman
Many days I feared I would end up
All alone
Never finding a love I could call my own
But then you came along
And swept me off my feet
And for the first time in my life
I feel complete
You mean so much to me
I'm so happy to be
Your woman
Love is so hard to find
Which is why I'm thankful that I'm
Your woman
You mean so much to me
I'm so happy to be
Your woman
Love is so hard to find
Which is why I'm thankful that I'm
Your woman
