"Catch You"

Visit "Catch You" on MotoLyrics.com

I can tell you've been crying
It's alright I am here
To make you smile
Even for a while
Let me hold you
Let me hold you now
I'll be yours for the asking
Say the words
I'll be your friend
And I'll be listening I'll be listening well
Tell me anything
I'll understand
Refrain:
And I will catch you
When you're falling
Down, down, down
I will watch you
'Til you get your feet back on the ground
If you fall down again
Call my name
I'll catch you once again
I'll be yours for the asking
Say the words
I'll be your friend
And I'll be listening I'll be listening well
Tell me anything
I'll understand
Refrain
(and again, again)
Don't ask me why
Don't ask me how
I'll find a way to be with you somehow
Hooh?
Refrain
