"Run to You"

Sometimes you're a Romeo who knocks me off my feet
And sometimes you're a stranger I'd never want to meet

You could be the sweetest man who'd take away my fears

But you could be so cruel and bring me into tears

Chorus:

And I don't know why, I don't know why

I love you the way that I do

And I run to you, I run to you

I can't explain why I keep coming back

I run to you, I still run to you

'Cause baby, you're all that I've got

I run to you

You could be the best thing this woman's ever had

And you could drive me crazy and you could drive me mad

You're a knight in shining armour who'd be there when I call

Sometimes you're a joker who knocks me off the wall

Chorus

I run to you?

Chorus

I run to you 2x

Run to you, hooh?

I run to you?
