Photographs playing inside my head
I'm always thinking of you
Restless heart in an empty bed
There's nothing left to prove
There's a fine line, a jagged edge
And I walk it to find the truth
And after all that's been done and said
I still love you
I don't want to compromise us
I don't want to change the rules
I don't have a single answer
I just wanna be with you
Refrain:
I, I don't wanna say goodbye
I have no more tears to cry
No more tears for you
No I, I don't wanna say goodbye
I don't wanna spend my time
Wishing you were here
Wishing you were, wishing you were here
It's a long road, a journey back
The crepuscule and the midnight sun
I see the gray between white and black
And I am coming home?
There's a light, a revelation
It shines with the thought of you
We made love so complicated
Now I see the simple truth
I, I don't wanna say goodbye
I have no more tears to cry
What good do they do
Oh I, I don't wanna say goodbye
I don't wanna spend my time
Wishing you were here
Wishing you were, wishing you were here
Refrain
