Tonight's the night
You said you'd tell me that you loved me
And though I try
I can't believe that you'll still want me (oh)
Don't know that past, tonight I'll be your
One

The dead flowers
You left upon my doorstep, sweet pea
Should I reply
With gentle kisses, oh so skimpy
Enough's enough
Don't know that past tonight I'll be your
One

You tell me yours
Is more than
Mine
Although
I know that
I love you most (I love)
Wish I could deny
I love you most (I love)
Wish I could deny
I love you

And on my neck
The bite you left has started bruising
So go ahead
Is it my fear or you I'm losing?
Enough's enough
Don't know that past tonight I'll be your
One

You tell me yours
Is more than
Mine
I know that
I love you most (I love)
Wish I could deny

I love you most (I love)
Wish I could deny
I love you

You tell me yours
Is more than
Mine
I know that
I love you most
Wish I could deny
I love you most
Wish I could deny
I love you most
Wish I could deny
I love you most
Wish I could deny
I love you
