Sad lonely boy caught between perfection and directions to the next big thing
It gets so hard sometimes-- Stuck between what you have and what you think you need

What do you do?
When the world swallows you up
and spits you out?

Always outside,
Climb up every fence just trying to make a little sense of the world And the way it spins of the world and the way it always seems to win

What do you do?
When the world just swallows you up
and spits you out?
What do you do when you don't know who you are
What do you do?

You are not the captain of this ship
You are just a passenger You've spent so many years just floating around, It's time to learn what you can live with and what you can't live without

What do you do?
When the world swallows you up
and spits you out
What do you do when you don't know what you know what do you do, what do you do?

Sad lonely boy
