I'm waiting home alone,
You never ever call me,
One day I will be gone,
You're not the one for me,
I've lost my innocence,
It's never gonna be the same,
I don't need your common sense,
And now you've lost your only chance,

You never try to help me
You never try to call me anyway,
You don't know how to love me,
And now you're beggin' me to stay

And now you're beggin' me to stay!

If you don't understand,
Well you should go and ask your friend,
He knows what's going on,
Cause I've called him on the phone,

You never try to help me
You never try to call me anyway,
You don't know how to love me,
And now you're beggin' me to stay,

And now you're beggin' me to stay!

Somehow it's over, you never told me
You had another girl, and it's hurts can't you see?
And it's hurts can't you see?
And it's hurts can't you see?
You never try to help me,

And now you're beggin' me to stay!
You never try to help me!
