Girl, girl, girl, your beautiful face is like a big mistake
But it's time to learn, you'll see some people who will spit

In your face some other girls who will be full of hate,
But you know poor girl, it's a sad sad world,

You say you're fine, but you lie, and you cry,
Let me see how you really smile, girl!

Girl, girl, girl, don't be afraid of feeling sexy,
You know they're wrong and you know that maybe,
They just don't see your true beauty,

You say you're fine, but you lie, and you cry,
Let me see how you really smile, girl!

And you know poor girl, it's a sad sad world...

You say you're fine, but you lie, and you cry,
Let me see how you really smile, girl!

And you know poor girl, it's a sad sad world...

You say you're fine, but you lie, and you cry,
Let me see how you really smile, girl!
