Goodbye Revlon
I'm not a covergirl
I don't need you if I'm not of this world Supermodel made out of plastacine

Why don't you tell me what you really mean?
You're losing points in a game that I won't play
Cuz I'm his girl
I'm an heir to his kingdom
I'm justified and purified in the cleansing of his blood
Yes I'm his girl
and he's made me a princess and he calls me beautiful and I think that's enough
oh I know it's enough, hey, hey..hey heyyyy hey..

I know I may not have buns of steel But I know that his love for me is real I won't listen to you anymore.

I lost the keys right after I slammed the door
I'm in his presence so I am set free
Cuz I'm his girl
I'm an heir to his kingdom
I'm justified and purified in the cleansing of his blood
yes I'm his girl
and he's made me a princess
and he calls me beautiful and I think that's enough
oh I know it's enough

Cuz I'm his girl
I'm an heir to his kingdom
I'm justified and purified in the cleansing of his blood
Yes I'm his girl
and he's made me a princess
and he calls me beautiful and I think that's enough Oh I know it's enough, I know it's enough..
