You're sleeping on the floor but I hope you don't mind
I like it like that simple and shy
You're knocking on my door and I hope it's all right
Don't like it like that, but come on and spy

Go away I've closed the door, looking though the keyhole
My underwear on the floor, gonna play a neworte

I am not that complicated, into the keyhole, you can see me anyway
I am not that complicated, shut the door, you can touch me anyway

You're sleeping on the floor but you hope you don't mind
I like it like that, come on and spy

Look again on your right side, look though the keyhole
Stop breathing, get me down, come again, I'm so cold

I am not that complicated, into the keyhole, you can see me anyway
I am not that complicated, shut the door, you can touch me anyway

Go away I've closed the door, looking though the keyhole
My underwear on the floor, gonna play a neworte

Look again on your right side, look though the keyhole
Stop breathing, get me down, come again, I'm so cold

I am not that complicated, into the keyhole, you can see me anyway
I am not that complicated, shut the door, you can touch me anyway
I am not that complicated, into the keyhole, you can see me anyway
I am not that complicated, shut the door, you can touch me anyway.
