Ran into an old friend on the street last night hey, how have you been?

talked about the old days and I felt just like coming home again.

Memories from long ago lovers come and go but you still know who I am my friend

I'm wondering if you will ever understand this lonely state I'm in I'll finish up this job and spread my jaded wings and go back home again.

Home where I am feeling strong and I know I belong all I really need is to go home again take me home again

Take me, take me home, again

take me, take me home, again

Oh won't you take me won't you take me back where I am feeling strong, where I belong

Oh won't you lead me won't you take me by the hand and get me home, where I belong

I ran into an old friend on the street last night see the state I'm in talking to you made me feel good inside

like coming home again
