Written and Composed by _____.

We've been together for such a long time now music Music and me Don't care whether all our songs rhyme now music Music and me

I know where ever I go We're as close as two friends can be There have been others But never two lovers like music Music and me

Grab a song and come along You can sing your melody In your mind you will find A world of sweet harmony

Birds of a feather Will fly together Now with music, music and me Music and me
