Written and Composed by Charlie Smalls.

You can't win
You can't break even
And you can't get out of the game

But people keep sayin'
Things are gonna change

But you all know they stayin' the same
Cause you get in way over your head
And you only have yourself to blame

You can't win, Chile
You can't break even and you
Can't get out of the game

You can't win
The world keeps movin'
And you're standin'
Far behind

But people keep sayin'
Things'll get better

Just to ease your state of mind
So you lean back, and you smoke that smoke
And you drink your glass of wine
So you can't win, Chile
You can't break even
And you can't get out of the game

You can't win, can't win no way
If your story stays that same
You ain't winnin
But it's nice to see you
And I'm awfull glad you came
Better cool it, cause it ain't
About losin'

Then the world had got no shame

You can't win, you can't break even
And you can't get out of the game

You can't win, you can't break even
Ain't the way its supposed to be

You'll be spendin'
Your little bit of money
While someone esle rides for free
Learn your lesson, refuel your mind
Before someone blows out your flame

You can't win, Chile, you can't win
You can't break even
And you can't get ouf of the gAme
And you can't get ouf of the game And you can't get ouf of the game
