I don't know if living makes me happy
I don't think that anything's exactly
What it needs to be, when it comes to me
She is a god to me, I waited for so long

I don't know if living makes much sense now
I can't say a thing in its defense now
'Cause it gets to me that I used to be so extra-sensory
I knew it all along, nothing could go wrong

When I look into those eyes, nothing seems like a surprise
When I look into those eyes, nothing seems like a
surprise

I don't think that living's too attractive
I don't think that God is interactive
And it gets to me that I used to be so extra-sensory
I knew it all along, nothing could go wrong
Nothing could go wrong, nothing could go wrong
