I woke up this mornin' from a crazy dream
Coulda swore you were here
My body's so warm and its the strangest thing
I kinda wish you were near

And I say take that back to the days things drifted away
Her class and style
They made me go wild in every single way

And a feel that
The rhythm of my broken beaten heart
Her love is poison
It can't be avoided
She's got that crazy kind of love

My mind slowly grips now
All the ways you schemed
The way you ran around my heart.
My brain is on meltdown
See that?s the foolish thing...
I kinda wish it never stopped
And a feel that
The rhythm of my broken beaten heart
Her love is poison
It can't be avoided
She's got that crazy kind of love

My mind slowly grips now
All the ways you schemed
The way you ran around my heart.
My brain is on meltdown
See that?s the foolish thing...
I kinda wish it never stopped
