Trams

I will design a town in the image of your face, Round the wrinkles of your eyes my footsteps you can trace.

We could promenade down the infranasal depression,
The streets of your hands will never feel a recession
(trams).

It's a secular day (trams) and it will be even better
tomorrow (trams),
It's the first day (trams) of the integrated transport hub
(trams).

Let us celebrate (trams) this monumental progress
(trams),
We have reduced (trams) emissions by seventy-five per cent (trams).

Inaugural trams (trams)

They say the future of cement is set in stone.
We could proclaim a republic and throw away the throne.
We will activate the beam that welcomes spaceships,
By the speed of light their [something unintelligible]

(trams)

It's a secular day (trams) and it will be even better
tomorrow (trams),
It's the first day (trams) of the integrated transport hub
(trams).
Let us celebrate (trams) this monumental progress

(trams),
We have reduced (trams) emissions by seventy-five per cent (trams).

[German verse]

(trams)

It's a secular day (trams) and it will be even better
tomorrow (trams),
It's the first day (trams) of the integrated transport hub
(trams).
Let us celebrate (trams) this monumental progress
(trams),
We have reduced (trams) emissions by seventy-five
per cent (trams).

It's a magical day (trams) and it will be even better
tomorrow (trams),
Let us make (trams) the best of a difficult situation
(trams).
It's a secular day (trams) and it will be even better
tomorrow (trams),
We have reduced emissions by seventy-five per cent.
