I'm user friendly
You use me, friend
From getting heavy
I struggle to cry

All I needed was patience
But I didn't have time
Taking stock in the
Box Office late at night
For the millionth time

Find the trails of patience
Proclamation is all
My rash frustration
Never gave me the call

All I needed was patience
But I didn't have time
Taking stock in the
Box Office late at night
For the millionth time

All I needed was helpless
But I get there always
Disco night in the daytime wide awake
When I should have been in my place

Proclamation is all
