Rapture
Waiting to capture that moment
Postponement
Suspension of rational movement

So bang on the hour of twelve
To the forest clearing we'll delve
With guns to our heads for we know
That heaven awaits us

Dreaming of that perfect home by the sun
Run! Christian, run!
Still dreaming of that perfect home by the sun
Run! Christian, run!

Roaming
Roaming from all tribulation
Leaving
Leaving behind all damnation

With women and children in line
The men will then gather behind
With knives to their throats they'll depart
On the midnight train to Jordan

Still dreaming of that perfect home by the sun
Run! Christian, run!
Wishing for that perfect home by the sun
Come, kingdom come
