Can't forget that smile, can't believe we met
Such a sudden kiss and you never even said goodbye
The future ain't what it used to be
I'll always think of you lovingly

Seasons change and rearrange
A new light shines, if she read my mind
You could be drinking wine with me
So why don't you go up and ask?
I'm so very shy, I couldn't look at her in the eye
When the lights came on I knew it was time to go

One thing I know I must never do ever again
Is delay in asking you if I could ever be able to
I don't know shit
I've fucked up again

I wanna walk you home tonight
Please can I walk you home tonight?
I wanna walk you home tonight
Please can I walk you home tonight?

I wanna walk you home tonight
Please can I walk you home tonight?
I wanna walk you home tonight
I've been scared of asking you
Just in case you might let me down girl

Don't let me down girl
Don't let me down girl
Don't let me down girl
