"Goin To Hell"

I kneel before you concealed by the screen
Forgive me I have sinned Father what are you hiding?
I think it's wrong, but it's so fun
You don't belong, it's only begun

This list is long I fear it bears my name
It's not exclusive cause we're all goin' to hell

You're judgment condemns me, take the smirk off your face
The jury has spoken, another promise broken
I think it's wrong, but it's so fun
You don't belong, it's only begun

The list is long I fear it bears my name
A one-way ticket and eternity of pain
Down the River Haiti's on a pleasure cruise
Anchor's Away my friend we're all goin' to hell

Bells are tolling, numbers soaring; don't forget to bring your SPF 80
Got your suitcase, put on your best face, free drinks from Lucifer for all the Ladies

The list is long I fear it bears my name
A one-way ticket and eternity of pain
Down the River Haiti's on a pleasure cruise
Anchor's Away my friend we're all goin' to hell
The list is long I see it bears your name
Who's coming with us down straight to Hell
