Keep logging the endless mile will I wake far from off the road
Stones throw from glory, no more second chance back home
Tell Signs of the early ending, take me from the great unknown

Is this all I have to show, now I guess I'll never know Face down in the riverbed, help me I can't die aloneâ€¦â€¦

Keep watching my life unfold will you find my body cold Nobody to guide me, just the prayers of a passerby Come to terms with what I'm facing take me to the other side

Is this all I have to show, now I guess I'll never know Face down in the riverbed, help me I can' die
aloneâ€¦â€¦

No tearsâ€¦..No timeâ€¦..Don't say goodbyeâ€¦..
Spare meâ€¦.All your sentiments are fraudulent

Is this all I have to show, now I guess I'll never know
aloneâ€¦â€¦
