Tall tales shattered
Pristine images of me
Nurtured sadness
It's all beautiful to see

We can't mix them

Flauntless glories
Amplified to graduate
Constant beatings
A bruise underneath your face

Creeping skywards
I don't understand your ways
Silence broken
It's all beautiful to me

We can't mix them

It's more than you take
It's more than you break
It's more than you can
It's more than I am to understand

Come and have your way
Don't take too long
Come and have your way
Don't take too long

A vision to pray, too far away
Emotions are plain today
Come and have your way
Don't take too long

Razored mirrors
Wells been empty for so long
Climate changes
But it only rains on me

We can't mix them

It's more than you take

It's more than you break
It's more than you can
Its more than I am to understand

Come and have your way
Don't take too long
Come and have your way
Don't take too long

A vision to pray, too far away
Emotions are plain today
Come and have your way
Don't take too long

Don't take too long
Don't take too long
Don't take too long
Don't take too long

It's more than you can take
It's more than you can break
It's more than I can understand
