Sit back as you watch these pigs deceive you
Dress you up with pride so they can beat you down
As a passenger, watch the world roll by Sedate the fire so it can multiply

Can you still remember?
They comatose, arrange
Poison you with weakness
So you're pacified, deranged

You gotta fight back, take control

I'll be the one to make
I'll be the one to take
I'll be the one who knows right for me

I'll be the one to decide
I'll be the one who's got pride
I'll be the one who knows right for me

One generation to the next is backed up
Money is God, indeed the purging factor
Power is not disguised when governments empathize
Corporate sentiment is working hard in overdrive

They soothed you into numbness
Your mind is all in vain
Pray for the deceivers
Sabotage the games they play
You gotta fight back and take control

No, they can't keep us down
