The eggs turned black and shriveled in the pan.
You smoked in the bed, and never woke again.
Take me with you, take me with you, take me with you.
Please, take me...
The first attack was terrible to see.
Your eyes rolled back and forgot everything.
Take me with you, take me with you, take me with you.
Please, take me...
And then, with an exaggerated kiss there is no sense,
there is no ugliness.
Take me with you, take me with you, take me with you.
Please, please take me!
