If you won't come over, I won't come to your house.
If I won't come to you, I'll just live without you.
Turn this way and that, and twist like a snake.
If I want to see you, I would have to change.
Heaven wasn't in the sky, but I'll get there anyway.
If you won't come over, I won't come to your house.
If I won't come to you, I'll just live without you.
And try to remember when we could be friends,
When I used to follow everything you said.
Heaven wasn't in the sky, but I'll get there anyway.
Heaven wasn't in the sky, but I'll get there just the same.
When I try to please you, I can't see to stand.
And when you come in, you wreck everything.
I'll go somewhere far, where you never can.
I won't hear your voice, I won't feel your hands.
Heaven wasn't in the sky, but I'll get there anyway.
Heaven wasn't in the sky, but I'll get there just the same.
