"walk around in your shoes always open mind to nothing but what you've been told it's getting old realize we're not that different time to time we all forget we're all human and in the end

here is to good trends
being just like your friends who cares if it's just you doing what they want to stop thinking for yourself
listen to someone else nevermind people who aren't like me or you your club please leave me out of your time is better spent on yourself than someone else ain't it great to make decisions based on what are best for them not best for you it's up to you

nevermind people who aren't like me or you

finally and in conclusion life is what you make not what they make for you
it's up to you
furthermore who cares what they think trends are what are made not what you're supposed to do so here's to you
