Love doesn't last as long as plastic, nobody can.
Love is for the beautiful with with time on their hands.
Who are you to cut us off, you didn't give us long enough, didn't give us long enough.
Hate is very legendary, and it's always on.
Love is just a spectacle created for the young.
Who are you to cut us off, you didn't give us long
enough, didn't give us long enough.
Violence is beautiful, like a ballet.
All I do is concentrate and everything is pretty.
Who are you to cut us off, you didn't give us long enough, didn't give us long enough.
