Put five people in a room, the fifth does what the others do.

The fifth one only wants to be like them.

Someone has to wear the scarlet letter in the pack,
And yours is such a very candy apple red.

Candy apples, candy red, they'll have candy how they can.

Put five people in a room, the fifth does what the others do.

The donkey wants to be the lion's friend.

When they start to tear you up, you realize you're not one of them.

And lions always gotta eat something.

Candy apples, candy red, they'll have candy how they can.

They'll have candy how they can.

Put five people in a room, the fifth does what the others do.

The donkey wants to be the lion's friend.

When they start to tear you up, you realize you're not one of them.

And lions always gotta eat something.

Candy apples, candy red, they'll have candy how they can.

They'll all have candy how they can.
