Forget the lies you worked so hard on, and listen to me instead.

The letters burn into the screen and fix you where you stand.

It's the last thing you'll ever feel.

It's the last thing you'll ever feel.

You walk through me like a ghost and leave no mark.

At some other time you had a heart...

It's the last thing you'll ever feel.

It's the last thing you'll ever feel.

You walk through me like a ghost and leave no mark.

At some other time you had a heart...

It's the last thing you'll ever feel.

It's the last thing you'll ever feel.
