A great divide
A turning tide
How you hide
In the corner of my life

Save the time
Save me from my fall
Save us all
Tell me life is beautiful

Shine on
You golden sea
Please let me leave my history
Release me from my misery
Almost gone
Moving on
For you

It's your light
It's your way
It's your ride
Out of the gray

A world comes alive
A future in your mind
A shadow of the future
Moving back in time

Shine on
You golden sea
Please let me leave my history
Release me from my misery
Almost gone
Moving on
For you

Running off my darkest nights
Guided by the flashing lights
Leading me to where I should be

Shades of blue creating fright

Turning into black and white
Finding colour back in you and me

Shine on
You golden sea
Please let me leave my history
Release me from my misery
Almost gone
Moving on
For you
