He's not inspired to be something aimless
He's kinda living through someone
I tell you boy it's a different way to be
It's not a matter of circumstance, you should quit believing it's something
To do with everyone else, insanity
We're rockin' with the enemy
I dont know why i'm still here
My body's 4 breakin' down
When it's said and it's done and you've had all your fun
Then your body's 4 breakin' down
I don't know why you're still here
My body's 4 breakin'
I've spent all too long second guessing what's right

We'll everybody's got a situation
It's all a part of the problem I'm thinking over my invitation now (text me when your leaving town)
There's nothing wrong with the way we see it
You'll never own this house you're renting
Another brick in the wall ain't coming down
Ain't safe for us to be around

I dont know why i'm still here
My body's 4 breakin' down
When it's said and it's done and you've had all your fun
Then your body's 4 breakin' down
I don't know why you're still here
My body's 4 breakin'
I've spent all too long second guessing what's right
And what's wrong and what's right...
And what's right and what's wrong
And it's not so bad if you wait too long
