Visit "So Lonely" on MotoLyrics.com

I saw you walking away, I caught my breath
Without you hanging around, I've nothing left
And I'll take you as I am (when you're leaving)
But the dog won't understand (why you're leaving)
I guess she'll sort it all out, the time will come

So tell me you can stay, I get so lonely without you
My feet won't leave the ground
Can't stand to be away
I get so lonely without you

I'm not responsible now, I've lost my way
Seems I've forgotten somehow what I should say
And there's nothing we won't do (it's a given)
And it's all because of you (now we're livin')
I'm gonna take you apart and show you why

So tell me you can stay, I get so lonely without you
My feet won't leave the ground
Can't stand to be away
I get so lonely without you (I hate to be this way)
Just spend a little while
I get so lonely without you
This always brings me back
Patience is not my style
I get so lonely without you and I do, and I do
