You think it would be best
If I'm put to rest
Push push push away
And I think I can't See right through you

See where that got you
I see you crawling

Save your breath
Close your eyes and
Wipe that look about your face
Now

Push push push away
Until your satisfied now
With this distance between us
Yeah I still see through you

See where it got you
I see you crawling

Save your breath
Close your eyes and
Wipe that look about your face
