I remember the image of you who waited for me again today
From time to time, when things get tough, I always think of you
Thank you... when I'm happy we all laugh together... and loving hearts are always abounding Now, having just received your heart, I'll give everything back to you

A little bit closer, love... I'll always protect you so we're like how we are now
When you're feeling exhausted and hurt and pained...
all you have to do is lean on me
Always, HAPPY TOGETHER

It's just a little bit different... even if those there are cold glares or someone says something, I just hope that you won't change Thank you... for crying all together when I'm feeling down... for always staying together and protecting each other
Now, having just received your heart, I'll give
everything back to you

A little bit closer, love... I'll always protect you so we're
like how we are now
When you're feeling exhausted and hurt and pained...
all you have to do is lean on me
Always, HAPPY TOGETHER

Even when the tears that are hidden from the world flow
Because the dazzling you is with me, I can gain strength and laugh again...
Always, HAPPY TOGETHER

You're my everything... you're my best... my person... no matter what anyone says, you're my love~

A little bit closer, love... I'll always be by your side so we're like how we are now

When you're feeling exhausted and hurt and pained...
all you have to do is lean on me

Don't say that you can't. don't say that you'll fail
Even if noone acknowledges you, you can do it Now don't change and smile all together... everyone here will now always be happy Love, happiness... from now on Love, happiness... forever and ever Love, happiness... you and me Love, happiness... doing it together
Forever, HAPPY TOGETHER
