It's been a long day
At the bottom of the hill
They say she died of a broken heart
She told me I was living in the past
Drinking from a broken glass

I'm Alone
Now I turn to face the cold
I'm Alone
Now I turn to travel home

I walked down
to the other end today
Just to catch those last few rays
I held out my hands and slowly waved goodbye
I turn my eyes to the sky

Chorus

She'll come back to me

I held out my hands to the light and I watched it die
I know, that I was part to blame
But I've done my time and I Never want to spend my life alone
