your smile cuts like only I know this vicious blade of ecstasy should I wish to break these chains can't stand it if I freeze so near yet so far to my surprise I can't show you who you are so near yet so far to my demise so I wait until you like my eyes so I wait until you like shudder to think what would can't face that hurt I'd bye bye gone never show that you're alone always hope how we be as one

so I wait until you like until you like my lies so I wait and I lose

it's just a little... it's just a little crush so I hush roll over and cry if I don't tell you I'll die and if I do I'm screwed it's a lose-lose situation but one I'm used to when I'm always betting on a limp horse of course can't get the words outta my mouth wanna spit 'em out but I'm not quite ready yet to come screaming out the closet I said goddamn you got me real good all I wanna be is wanna be is cured all I want to be is cured until you like my eyes

so I wait and I lose
and I lose
