There's something wrong with you that I can't explain
All the things you do just seem to drive me insane
Feels like I've been running against the wall
Every move you make just always seems to be my fault

I don't know how to go on anymore
There's nothing left of what people used to call love

What so special made you change your mind Talking to you just makes me feel like blind leading the blind
Every time you turn away from me
Makes me wonder if silence is the only way to speak

Should I keep waiting, hope that you'd be coming around
Or just move on and see what's there to be found

Just let me know when it's over
So I don't have to face the night alone
You're not the one, I already told her
And I'm leaving with the first morning light

Tired of going through this every night
It's always the same, can't you see you're acting like a child
Been trying so long but you can never hear me call
It's time for me to take my bows and let the curtain fall

When the lights go down, and the crowds have gone
Turn away and walk right out of the door

Just let me know when it's over
So I don't have to face the night alone
You're not the one, I already told her
And I'm leaving with the first morning light

When the lights go down, and the crowds have gone
You turn away and walk right out of the door

Just let me know when it's over

So I don't have to face the night alone
You're not the one, I already told her
And I'm leaving with the first morning light
