I can feel this sinking to the ground
I can feel your quicksand pulling me down into your darkness
I must be addicted to the pain
Looks like I'm gonna try again
Why do I still want this?

Cuz you're at the bottom of every bottle
I've been drinking since we met
And as hard as I might try ya I can't forget

Cuz every little part of me still hates you
And every little part of me still wants you, needs you
And every time I try to leave I can't move
Cuz every little part of me still hates you, hates you

Sometimes I feel like I'm insane
Sometimes it feels like everything's gonna change between us
Cuz it was all you and me at first and Now thinking of everything was real but there's nothing here to save us

Cuz I can't control you
And I wanna show you
That it's all inside your head
Cause way it's going there won't be nothing left

Cuz every little part of me still hates you
And every little part of me still wants you, needs you
And every little part of me and I can't move
And every little part of me still hates you, hates you

Yeeeeaaaaaaahhhh Yeahhhhhhhh now
Woooooaaahhhh Do it again

I can feel this sinking to the ground
I can feel your quicksand pulling me down into your
darkness

Cuz every little part of me still hates you

And every little part of me still wants you, needs you
And every little part of me I can't move
And every little part of me still hates you, hates you
