I was a broken man
You reached out your hand
Your touch brought me back to life
Life had beaten me
Down to the third degree
You gave me strength to stand up right

Now with everything I am... I promise you

I'll give you all you need
Never leave you wanting for anything
When you close your eyes I want to hear your sighs
And know that you're thinking of me
Forever and always I'll give you all you need

Just look at me now
Your love showed me how
To believe in who I am
You support my dreams
Your love gives me wings
Without you there is no plan

Now with everything I am... I promise you

I'll give you all you need
Never leave you wanting for anything
When you close your eyes I want to hear your sighs
And know that you're thinking of me
Forever and always [x2]

With all of my love.... I'll give you all you need
