I said: oh no
girl
I wouldn't let it happen again

But I could feel my word just slippin' through the palm of his hand.
Just the sound of his voice
oh and I forget about the price I've paid

It seems I've got no choice

Somewhere in my heart the decision's been made.
His love keeps gettin' stronger but I think I could run if I tried.

Can't hold back much longer guess it looks like we're in for a ride.

Love get ready
here I come

Keep my heartbeat steady till I know he's the one.
Love get ready
here I come
gonna catch me one more time!
I've heard all those lies and every way to say good-bye

But this heart of mine says he's not just another guy.
Then
with every term
it's better than the time before

I only know this much whatever it is I've just gotta have more.
I can't keep my distance
I wouldn't do if I knew how

That doesn't make any difference

'cause I can tell you it's too late now!

Love get ready

...

Somebody wake me and bring me to my senses

Somebody shake me

I'm losing my defences.

Love get ready

here I come

...

Love get ready

here I come

...

Go

get yourself ready

I can't tame him 'cause I'm loving it now.

Just get yourself ready can't hold back and I'm gonna let it get strong.
