Sunrise x 32

Talk to me what are you doing what are you thinking rite now set me free I'm just a prisoner to you and time goes by I'm still waiting forever and a day boy I thought I saw you yesterday I thought those words I herd you say

(Chorus)

When I look at the sunrise sunlight, nothing feels awake when your living this feeling don't ever let me go when I look at the starlight it feels right your bodies on my mind ill set you free , ill set you free

Look at me what are u thinking tell me what your seeing let me go if there's nothing you believe an time goes by I'm still waiting forever and a day boy I thought I saw you yesterday

(Chorus)

When I look at the sunrise , sunlight nothing feels awake when your living this feeling don't ever let me go when I look at the starlight it feels right your bodies on my mind ill set you free , ill set u free .
