We're to redo antilove
We're here to ease the pain

Under love's command
You know you'll suffer again

Undo if you dare
You know you know what will occur

Annihilation is not Believe it's not what you want

Antilove again
All electrons are okayed

As long as love's undone
As long as antilove's redone

An ordered existence
you define the distance

we can understand we can reduce the pain undo if you want if love is really what you want

an ordered existence
you defined the distance the decision was yours we won't redo our antilove you have to understand now we can't reduce the pain antilove we're looped in it hide from love they're not to meet virtual pair exactly opposite annihilation don't play with it antilove, don't play with it
