Aint this sumthing, Ive never been through something so hard

I feel like nothin, will ever heal this girl i scared

So much to say, I should have said right from the start

Here i am today breakin honeys heart

I dont wanna loose her, But it feels like i just might.....disrespect or abuse her

She says and i know shes right, im a typical man ! and im tearing her world apart

And i understand that iam breakin honeys heart

No more lllllllllllie'in for me

No more acting like i was someone i couldnt be

She knows im sorry, cause sorry doesnt even start

To make up for the way that i broke my honeys heart

SOLO

She dont deserve this, to be treated so mean and cruel

And i dont deserve her, after acting like such a fool

Look in her eyes and see pain thats off the chart

All because of my lies, breaking honeys heart

No more lllllie'in for me, no more questions no more revision its history

Im so sorry, shes so pretty and honest and smart

And she blue as her eyes breakin honeys heart

Yeah

Shes blue as her eyes breakin honeys heart
