

Supertones "Unite"

Visit "Unite" on MotoLyrics.com

Live and undrugged six years and countin'
Believer in Christ, yes, yes, the blessed fountain
Apolegetic Warrior, chalk one up for the visitors
Casting fiercesome light into the shadows of midnight
To the underground we descend
With our whole generation to defend
Got a whole army on my case, got the devil in my face
'cause' that punk knows when's the end Unite, ignite, and spark a light to burn so bright the sight will blind the blind of this our modern time Oh yeah, I got a beef with the fence-sitters tiers among the wheat, the cop-outs, the quitters
Cut from the branch fruitless, no good,
Only one use and that's firewood
Pay no mind to the generation line
Forsake your sect and be color blind
The problem's not Hollywood, the problem's not Washington
The problem's a weak divided church of schizmed christians
Never going back to the darkness I was damned in Now I turn my back on the place that I was found in Flick a match on Babylon, burn baby burn
Raized my mind for all this time and now it's your turn
Got enough gasoline and plenty o' matches
Finally I'm free and I shake off the ashes
From the city of refuse, I refuse to pay dues
To you, not me, and none of the free and the few

Visit Supertones page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.