All alone in bridge of silence

I suppose you shouldn't stay

All alone in dream's asylum

Don't you know we've come a long way

I suppose we were

Somewhere in the sun

We walked in colored fields

In places on the run

What a dream I had

Dressed in colored shawls

Though the night was so warm

And a nightingale

Sat on a castle wall

While the river ran on

Calling, hearing you call

The river ran on

Running

The river ran on

It felt as if we were

In places yet unknown

We walked through the bazaars

In places on the run
What a dream I had
Walking by the wall
Oh, the raiment and all
The stars flickered by
Soon to be replaced
If I asked them they'd fall
Calling, hearing you call
The river ran on
Running
The river ran on
What a dream I had
Dressed in colored shawls
Though the night was so warm
And in the darkness I
Tried to take your hand
But it was nothing at all
Nothing at all
The river ran on
Nothing at all
The river ran on
The river ran on
The river ran on
