"Brother Where You Bound"

There's a red cloud hanging over us
And it's so big and it's gonna burst
All you people with your heads in the ground

Hey brother, where you bound?

And they're no good and they're everywhere
Try to tell you but you just don't care
Yes I hear you but you don't make a sound

Hey brother, where you bound?
Hey brother, where you bound?

And you don't know, what they're gonna do?
And you don't know, how they feel?
And you don't know, what they're tellin' you?
Is it a lie or is it real
And the next thing that you know is That they walk out on the deal

And the message that they're giving you
Is the same old alibi
If you don't quite see their point of view
Then they treat you like a spy
And the phone rings and you disappear
In the middle of the night

Can't you see they're on the move
Don't know what you're trying to prove
But you sit there oh! so cool, like they never broke no rules

And the cat flies and the crow walks
And the ghost dies and the sow talks
And they tell us, that they'll be as good as gold Hey brother, where's your soul?
Believe nothing that you're told

Make a move in one direction, try to make some compromise
But they greet you with rejection, making out you're telling lies

Then they turn around and tell you, better get down from the sky

For the sake of all that's holy, listen good to what I say I can feel them all around me, they could be here any day
But you act like you don't know me, why do you look at me that way?

If there's one thing that is clear, we gotta get away from here
We've gotta leave this place, it's just a hopeless case
Ain't no one else to blame, we're gonna lose this game

Hey brother get off my back, I gotta tell you, you're way off the track
They got a hatred deep down inside
Ain't gonna let them take me alive
I'm gonna burn them down, just wait and see Ain't gonna let them, walk over me
Boy, you ain't got no heart and soul
And your mind is weak and your blood's running cold

You better move, you better hide
They're getting in, they're getting inside
If you get caught, you better know
They're gonna reap, you're gonna sow
Don't be a fool, we gotta go
Ain't no place safe for us to stay
We better move on, we better move on
