In time this fire will turn to ashes
The sun will fall out of the sky
Still you see no urgency
To spend some time with me
Time with me

I can't believe you haven't noticed
Just how long I've been waitin' for you
I've been such a patient man
But I still don't understand
You won't

Give me a chance to show
How much I love you
Give me a chance to show
How much I care
How I care

It's hard to know just what you're thinkin'
You cloak yourself in misery
Conversations always brief
Like a sigh with no relief
You won't

Give me a chance to show
How much I love you
Give me a chance to show
How much I care
Give me a chance to show
How much I love you
If you dare

Give me a chance to show
How much I love you
Give me a chance to show
How much I care
If you dare

You got to give me a chance to show
How much I love you
Give me a chance to show
How much I care

You got to give me a chance to show
How much I love you
Give me a chance
Now give me a chance
You got to give me a chance

Give me a chance to show you just
How much I care
Give me a chance
You got to give me a chance to show you just
How much I care
You got to give me a chance
