Trouble is my calling card, that's my middle name
Ever since you walked away, things are not the same
Now my life is misery, don't know what to do
Yeah, you're gone, you're history but I can't get Over you, over you, over you, over you

Used to be in Shangri-La, life used to be so good
You and me were going so far, that was understood
Ever since you walked away, my world has turned so blue
Now I live from day to day 'cause I can't get over you
Over you, over you, over you

Give my love another chance, you could make it so
Just how this could go so wrong, I will never know

Well, I want you right next to me and that's all I can say
I've been calling ever since you drove me away
You were on my mind so long, it's hard for me to take
Now my heart is not so strong and it might break
Over you, over you, over you, over you
Over you, over you, over you, over you
